XVII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the twenty-ninth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for enabling his Majeſty to raiſe one million for the Purpoſe therein mentioned; and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in this Seſſion of Parliament, The ſeveral Supplies which had been granted to his Majeſty, as is therein mentioned, were appropriated to the ſeveral Uſes and Purpoſes therein expreſſed; amongſt which any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding thirty-eight thouſand Pounds, was appropriated to be paid to the reduced Officers of his Majeſty's Land Forces and Marines; ſubject nevertheleſs to ſuch Rules to be obſerved in the Application of the ſaid Half-pay, as in and by the aforeſaid Act were preſcribed in that Behalf: Now it is hereby provided, enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſo much of the ſaid Sum of thirty-eight thouſand Pounds, as is or ſhall be more than ſufficient to ſatisfy the ſaid reduced Officers, according to the Rules preſcribed by the ſaid Act, to be obſerved in the Application thereof, or any Part of ſuch Overplus, ſhall and may be diſpoſed of to ſuch Officers who are maimed or loſt their Limbs in the late Wars, or ſuch others as by reaſon of their long Service or otherwiſe, his Majeſty ſhall judge to be proper Objects of Charity, or to the Widows or Children of ſuch Officers, according to ſuch Warrant or Warrants under his Majeſty's Royal Sign Manual, as ſhall be ſigned in that Behalf; any Thing in this Act, or the ſaid former Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Application of the Savings out of the Sum of 38,000l. granted the laſt Seſſion towards Half-pay.

'XVIII. And whereas Claud Johnſon of London, Merchant, did on or about the twenty-eighth Day of September one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-one, at the ſpecial Inſtance and Requeſt of George Buchanan, and William Hamilton, become bound for them in a Bond, conditioned for the Payment of five thouſand ſix hundred and ſeven Pounds twelve Shillings and nine Pence Half-penny, or thereabouts, being the Duties of two hundred and fifty thouſand Pounds Weight of Tobacco imported by the ſaid George Buchanan, and William Hamilton; and the ſaid George Buchanan, and William Hamilton, as an Indemnification to him againſt the ſaid Bond, did on or about the ſixth Day of February one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-two, aſſign to him two hundred Hogſheads of Tobacco, the Marks and Numbers of which were ſpecified on the Back of ſuch Aſſignment; and the ſaid two hundred Hogſheads of Tobacco were, ſoon after the Date of the ſaid Aſſignment, conveyed away by the ſaid George Buchanan and William Hamilton, and ſold and exported by them as their Property; and they did afterwards replace ninety-nine Hogſheads of Tobacco, with different Marks and Numbers, as Part of the ſaid two hundred: And whereas the ſaid George Buchanan, and William Hamilton, did on or about the twenty-firſt Day of April one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-two, aſſign forty-two Hogſheads of Tobacco to the ſaid Claud Johnſon, as a further Indemnification to him againſt the ſaid Bond, the Marks and Numbers of which Hogſheads were alſo ſpecified upon the Back of ſuch laſt Aſſignment: And whereas on or about the twenty-ſeventh Day of April one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-two, an Extent was iſſued at the Suit of the Crown againſt the Effects of the ſaid George Buchanan, and William Hamilton, for Duties on Tobacco imported by them; and an Inquiſition being taken on or about the thirtieth Day of April one thouſand ſeven hundred and and fifty-two, one hundred and thirty-five Hogſheads of Tobacco were ſeized as the Property of the ſaid George Buchanan and William Hamilton; forty-two Hogſheads of which were the Tobacco laſt aſſigned to the ſaid Claud Johnſon, and the remaining ninety-three were Part of the ſaid ninety-nine Hogſheads replaced as aforeſaid, the other ſix Hogſheads being ſeized by the Warehouſe-keeper for Rent; and the ſaid George Buchanan and William Hamilton ſoon after becoming Bankrupts, the ſaid Claud Johnſon entered his Claim to the ſaid one hundred and thirty-five Hogſheads in the Court of Exchequer; and, upon a Trial in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-two, a Verdict was found for his Majeſty, as to the ſaid ninety-three Hogſheads, becauſe the Marks and Numbers thereof did not correſpond with the Marks and Numbers indorſed on the ſaid firſt Aſſignment, and or the Claimant, as to the ſaid forty-two Hogſheads: And whereas the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, in Conſideration of the Payment of a certain Sum by the Aſſignees of the ſaid Bankruptcy, as a Satisfaction for the Monies due from the ſaid Bankrupts to the Crown, allowed the ſaid Aſſignees all the Effects ſeized upon the ſaid Inquiſition; but the ſaid Bond was not included in ſuch Agreement, the ſame not being then due: And whereas the ſaid Claud Johnſon has paid three thouſand one hundred ſeventy-three Pounds and ſeven Pence, or thereabouts, in Part of the ſaid five thouſand ſix hundred ſeven Pounds twelve Shillings and nine Pence Half-penny, and the ſaid ninety-three Hogſheads of Tobacco were ſold for the Sum of two thouſand ſix hundred fifty-five Pounds eight Shillings and eight Pence: And whereas there is great Reaſon to believe that if the ſaid George Buchanan and William Hamilton had continued in Credit, no Part of the ſaid Bond would have been paid in Money, but have been diſcharged by Debentures taken out upon the Exportation of Tobacco; and as the ſaid ninety-three Hogſheads were Part of the Effects which were allowed by the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms to the ſaid Aſſignees, in Conſideration of a certain Sum to be paid by them, whereby the Revenue received an Advantage, and the ſaid Claud Johnſon ſuſtained a Loſs more than adequate to the principal Money now due upon the ſaid Bond;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall be lawful for the High Treaſurer, or any three or more of the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury for the Time being, and he or they is and are hereby authoriſed and impowered to exonerate, acquit and diſcharge the ſaid Claud Johnſon of and from the Penalty mentioned in, and the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money conditioned to be paid by the ſaid Bond, dated on or about the ſaid twenty-eighth Day of September one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-one, and all Intereſt due thereupon; and to diſcharge and vacate the ſaid Bond, in ſuch Manner as to him or them ſhall ſeem expedient; any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Treaſury to diſcharge Claud Johnſon from Payment of the Penalty and Money conditioned to be paid by his Bond of 28 Sept. 1751, for Duties on Tobacco.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the twenty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the British White Herring Fishery; it is amongst other Things enacted, That as an Encouragement to all Persons whatsoever, as well Bodies Politick and Corporate, as others, and also the Persons who should be incorporated by virtue of and under the said Act, to engage in the said White Herring Fisheries, that a Bounty of thirty Shillings per Ton should be paid annually out of such Sums as should be produced out of his Majesty's Customs to the Owner or Owners of all decked Vessels, from twenty to eighty Tons Burthen, which should be built after the Commencement of the said Act for the Use of the said Fisheries, and fitted out and employed in the said Fisheries, in Manner and under the Regulations in the said Act after-mentioned; such Bounty of thirty Shillings per Ton to be paid yearly during the Space of fourteen Years from the Commencement of the said Act, and no longer, upon conforming to the Regulations of the said Act; in which said Act it is, amongst other Things enacted, That every Buss or Vessel of the Burthen of seventy Tons, and designed for the said Fishery, should on her proceeding to Sea, have on board one Fleet of fifty Nets, each Net to be thirty Yards full upon the Rope, and seven Fathoms deep, and so in Proportion for any Vessels of a greater or lesser Tonnage; and should be provided with one other Fleet of fifty like Nets on board a Jagger or Tender to attend the said Fishery, or left on Shore in a proper Place for the Use of the said Buss or Vessel: And whereas pursuant to the Power by the said Act given to his said Majesty, a Society, by the Name of the Society of The Free British Fishery, hath been incorporated by Charter bearing Date the eleventh Day of October one thousand seven hundred and fifty: And whereas by another Act made in the twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of his said Majesty, For further explaining, amending and rendering more effectual the said first-mentioned Act; and for giving further Encouragement 23 Geo. 2. c. 24. sect. 11 & 12. 28 Geo. 2. c. 14.

An Act for enlarging the Terms and Powers granted and continued by ſeveral Acts of Parliament, for repairing the Harbour of Dover in the County of Kent.

Preamble, reciting Clauſes in Act 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 5.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the eleventh and twelfth Years of the Reign of his late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the Repair of Dover Harbour, ſeveral Rates and Duties were charged upon Coals, and upon Ships and Veſſels, in order to raiſe a Sum, not exceeding thirty thouſand one hundred Pounds, to be applied for repairing and perfecting the ſaid Harbour of Dover, under ſuch Rates and Directions, and with ſuch Penalties and other Proviſions for the levying and recovering the ſame, as are therein mentioned, inſerted and contained; and which Rates, Duties and Proviſions, were to take Place and commence from the firſt Day of May one thouſand ſeven hundred, and to continue and be in Force, until the firſt Day of May one thouſand ſeven hundred and nine; and by two ſubſequent Acts, one of them made in the ſecond Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen ANNE, and the other of them in the fourth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Firſt, were continued, and declared to be in Force, until the firſt Day of May one thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty-ſeven: And whereas by an Act made and paſſed in the ninth Year of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Firſt, intituled, An Act for compleating the Repairs of the Harbour of Dover in the County of Kent; and for reſtoring the Harbour of Rye in the County of Suſſex to its ancient Goodneſs; after taking Notice of the ſaid former Acts relating to the Harbour of Dover, and that it was found that the ſaid Sum of thirty thouſand one hundred Pounds was not ſufficient for the Purpoſes of the ſaid former Acts; and that unleſs a further Sum was raiſed, the ſaid Harbour could not be effectually repaired and ſecured, according to the Intent of the ſaid former Acts; but that the uſeful Works then begun and carried on for the Benefit of the Publick, would be wholly loſt, and the ſaid Harbour again fall to Decay, and the Town itſelf be in Danger of being utterly loſt and deſtroyed; and alſo reciting, that the ancient Harbour of Rye was formerly of great Uſe and Benefit to Trade and Navigation, but the ſame was then choaked up, and that it was neceſſary to open the ſame in ſuch Manner as ſhould be found moſt proper and expedient to reſtore the ſaid Harbour; it was therefore enacted, That the ſaid Acts reſpectively made in the eleventh and twelfth Years of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, and the ſecond Year of the Reign of Queen ANNE, for the Repair of Dover Harbour, and every Clauſe, Matter or Thing in them, or either of them contained, and not altered by the ſaid Act of the ninth Year of King GEORGE the Firſt, ſhould continue, and be in full Force and Virtue, till the firſt Day of May one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-four, for the Purpoſes in that and the ſaid former Acts mentioned; and that the Duty of three Pence per Ton, granted by the ſaid Act of the eleventh and twelfth Years of King WILLIAM the Third, for the Repair of Dover Harbour, upon all Ships and Veſſels therein deſcribed, ſhould, from the firſt Day of May one thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty-three, be collected and receiv-

For former Laws concerning Seamen, refer to 2 R. 2. c. 4. 5 El. c. 5. 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 21, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 23. 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 41. 2 Ann. c. 6. 4 & 5 Ann. c. 19. 10 Ann. c. 17. 1 Geo. 1. stat. 2. c. 25. 8 Geo. 1. c. 24. 20 Geo. 2. c. 38. 22 Geo. 2. c. 32. 24 Geo. 2. c. 47. 28 Geo. 2. c. 16. 29 Geo. 2. c. 34.

'WHEREAS the Encouragement of Seamen employed in the Royal Navy, will greatly tend to augment the Marine Force of this Realm, whereon, under the good Providence and Protection of God, the Security of these Kingdoms, and the Support and Preservation of their Trade and Commerce, do most immediately depend: And whereas by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty, of five hundred thousand Pounds, towards discharging Wages due to Seamen; and for the constant, regular and punctual Payment of Seamens Wages for the future; and for appropriating the Supplies granted in this present Session of Parliament; and for disposing of the Surplus of the Money granted for Half Pay, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven; and by another Act also made in the first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for encouraging Seamen to enter into his Majesty's Service; several Provisions and Regulations were enacted and prescribed, for the Benefit and Encouragement of the Seamen employed in the Royal Navy, and for preventing Frauds and Abuses in purchasing of their Wages or Pay; which Provisions and Regulations, from various Difficulties in carrying the same into Execution, have been found, in a great Measure, ineffectual to answer the Purposes thereby intended: And whereas the establishing a regular Method for the punctual, frequent and certain Payment of the Wages or Pay due to inferior Officers and Seamen employed in the Royal Navy; the enabling such Officers and Seamen more easily and readily to obtain such Payments, and to allot and remit any Part thereof for the Support and Relief of their Wives and Families; and the preventing, as far as may be, the Unwary, the Ignorant or the Necessitous, from being defrauded and injured by the Extortion and Usury of wicked and evil-designing Persons, are of the utmost Consequence to the Publick Service;' Therefore, for effectuating these important and compassionate Purposes, Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of November one thousand seven hundred and fifty-eight, if any Seaman or Able-bodied Landman, shall freely and voluntarily come before and enter his Name with any Commission Officer or Officers of the Fleet, to be appointed for entering such Volunteers, in order to serve in, or on Board any of the Ships or Vessels of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, then fitting out for Sea, or that shall be in Want of Men, and shall receive a Certificate of his so doing from such Commission Officer or Officers (who is or are hereby directed and required to make out and give such Certificates, without Fee or Reward, and duly to date the same) and if such Person shall forthwith proceed towards such Ship or Vessel, and shall make his personal Appearance on Board the same, within the Space of fourteen Days from the Day of the Date of such Certificate, inclusive of the Day of the Date thereof, if the Place where he so enters his Name be not above one hundred Miles distant from the Port where such Ship or Vessel lies; or within the Space of twenty Days, if it be at a greater Distance; or within the Space of thirty Days, if the Place where he so enters his Name be above two hundred Miles distant; then, and in such Case, every such Person shall be, and is hereby declared to be, intitled to Wages from the Day of the Date of such Certificate, inclusive of the Day of the Date thereof, and shall also be allowed the usual Conduct Money, and shall be paid an Advance of two Months Wages at the first fitting out of such Ship or Vessel, and before such Ship or Vessel in which he shall serve shall proceed to Sea.

Preamble.

II. And, for remedying the many Inconveniences, Mistakes and Hardships, which arise from bearing any Seamen or Able-bodied Landmen on Board of his Majesty's Ships, for any Length of Time, as Supernumeraries, for Victuals only, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of November, every Seaman or Able-bodied Landman, who shall be entered on the Books of any Ship or Vessel belonging to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, as supernumerary to the Complement of such Ship or Vessel, shall be borne for, and intitled to, his Wages, upon the Books of the first, and of every other Ship or Vessel in which he shall serve for the Space of ten Days, and shall receive all other Benefits and Advantages as if he were Part of the Complement thereof.

Men borne on any Ship's Books as Supernumeraries, are intitled to Wages, &c. on board the first and every other Ship they shall serve in for 10 Days, &c.

III. Provided always, That where such Seaman or Able-bodied Landman shall have been lent from any Ship or Vessel belonging to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to any other such Ship or Vessel, such Seaman or Able-bodied Landman shall continue to be borne for, and intitled to his Wages, upon the Books of such Ship or Vessel from which he shall have been so lent, until he shall be regularly discharged from thence, and in no other; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Men lent from one ship to another, are to be born on the Ship's Books they were lent from, 'till discharged.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of November, in case any inferior Officer or Seaman shall be turned over from one Ship or Vessel in the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, into any other such Ship or Vessel, either by Order from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or from the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or any three or more of them, or by Order from any Commander in Chief of any Squadron of such Ships or Vessels, in any Port of Great Britain, or on the Coast of the same, every such Officer and Seaman, in case such Ship or Vessel, into which he shall be so turned over, shall be in or shall come into any Port of Great Britain where any Commissioner of the Navy shall be or reside, shall be paid, by Great Britain,

Inferior Officer or Seaman turned over to another Ship, if such Ship shall be or come into any Port of where a Commissioner of the Navy shall be, is to be paid the Wages due to him before such Ship goes to Sea, unless by the Admiralty it be otherwise directed; in which Case, he is to be paid as soon as the Ship returns into Port again.

by proper Pay Lists to be made out, all the Wages which shall appear to be due to him in the Ship or Vessel from which he shall be so turned over, before the Ship or Vessel, into which he shall be turned over, shall proceed to Sea; unless it shall be otherwise directed by Special Order from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or from the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or any three or more of them, in Cases of the greatest Exigency only: And if such Ship or Vessel, in pursuance of the said Order, shall proceed to Sea before such Payment can possibly be made, then the said Wages shall be paid as soon as ever such Ship or Vessel shall come again into any such Port of Great Britain where any Commissioner of the Navy shall be or reside as aforesaid.

Persons turned over, are to be rated, and serve, as in the former Ship; and to be paid their Wages then due, and two Months Pay in Advance, if none be received before.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Officer or Seaman shall be turned over from one Ship or Vessel in the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, into any other such Ship or Vessel; then, and in such Case, such Officer or Seaman, so turned over, shall not serve or be rated in a worse Quality or lower Degree or Station, than he served in or was rated for in the Ship or Vessel from which he was turned over; and shall receive, over and above such Wages as shall then be due to him, an Advance of two Months Wages, before the Ship or Vessel into which he shall be so turned over shall proceed to Sea, in case he shall not have received such Advance in any of the Ships or Vessels from which he shall be so turned over.

Monies are to be appropriated and issued, in the first Place, out of the Grants for Naval Services, sufficient for the regular Payment of Seamens Tickets, viz. If a Ship shall be in Sea Pay twelve Months or more, and lie in Port, or on the Coast of Great Britain, the Captain is to make out 5 Pay Books (except for the last 6 Months) and transmit them, with 3 Alphabets, and a Slop Book, to the Navy Board. On the Ship's Arrival where a Commissioner is, Money is to be solicited, and Payment immediately to be made, deducting Advance Money and Defalcation. Ships laid up are to be paid off within 2 Months. Month to consist of 28 Days.

VI. And, to the Intent that all Arrears of Seamens Wages, and their growing Wages, may be constantly, regularly and punctually paid; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and out of such Monies as have been or shall be granted in this Session of Parliament, for the Service of the Navy; and also from and out of all such Supplies as shall be hereafter granted in Parliament, for any Naval Services, such Sums of Money shall, in the first Place, be appropriated, and shall, from time to time, be issued and applied, as shall be sufficient for the constant, regular and punctual Payment of all Tickets that shall be made out in the Manner herein after directed, for the Wages or Pay due to any Officer or Seaman; and also for the constant, regular and punctual Discharge of all Wages or Pay now due, or to grow due, upon any Ship's Books, to any Officer or Seaman employed in the Royal Navy, in Manner following; that is to say, That from time to time, and at all Times, from and after the said first Day of November, when and so often as any of the Ships or Vessels of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall have been in Sea Pay twelve whole Months, or more, if such Ship or Vessel shall then be or shall arrive, in any Port of Great Britain, or on the Coast thereof, the Captain or Commander of such Ship or Vessel shall immediately make out, or cause to be made out, five complete Pay Books for all the Officers and Seamen belonging to the said Ship or Vessel, for all the Time that such Ship or Vessel shall have been in Sea Pay, except the last six Months; to which Time, videlicet, the last six Months, the Wages due upon all such Ships or Vessels are hereby intended to be cleared; and shall forthwith send or transmit, by the first safe Opportunity, such Pay Books, together with three Alphabets, and a Slop Book, to the Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board; and whensoever or as soon as any such Ship or Vessel, having been twelve whole Months or more in Sea Pay as aforesaid, shall be or arrive in any Port of Great Britain where any Commissioner of the Navy shall be or reside, the said Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board, are hereby strictly directed and required to solicit such Sums of Money as shall be sufficient, and as soon as the same shall be issued, to cause immediate Payment to be made of all the Wages due upon the said Pay Books as aforesaid, to all such Officers and Seamen, their Executors or Administrators, or to the respective Attorney or Attornies of such Officers or Seamen, their Executors or Administrators duly authorized as is herein after directed, deducting thereout whatever Monies shall have been paid before by way of Advance, or that shall stand against them in the Books of such Ships or Vessels, on Account of any Defalcation; leaving always six Months Wages, and no more, due to such Officers and Seamen for their Service in such Ship or Vessel, unpaid and in Arrear: And whenever any of the Ships or Vessels of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall return Home in order to be laid up, all the Wages due to the Officers and Seamen serving on Board of any such Ship or Vessel, shall be entirely paid off as soon as may be, or within two Months at furthest after the Arrival of such Ship or Vessel in the Port where the same is designed to be laid up: And it is hereby declared, That the Computation of the said Months Wages shall be by reckoning twenty-eight Days to the Month, according to the usual Course or Practice of the Navy.

Upon Application to the Navy Board, the Pay Books are to be sent down to a Commissioner, for paying off such Men then in the Service as shall have been absent at the Payment of the Ship.

'VII. And whereas inferior Officers and Seamen are frequently absent, either with the Leave of the 'Commanding Officer, or upon Duty, at the Time of the Payment of the Ship or Vessel to which they 'belong;' Therefore, for enabling such Officers or Seamen to receive their Wages or Pay with as little Delay as possible; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of November, whensoever and as often as any Application shall be made to the Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board, by any such inferior Officer or Seaman, who shall then be in the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, and who shall have been so absent at the Payment of the Ship or Vessel whereunto he did belong as aforesaid, or from the Captain or Commander of any Ship or Vessel of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, on Board of which such Officer or Seaman shall then serve, in case such Ship or Vessel shall be in any Port where any Commissioner of the Navy shall be or reside; then the Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board, shall immediately, upon such Application, cause the Pay Books of such Ship or Vessel so paid, or Pay Lists for such Officers and Seamen so unpaid made out from them, to be sent, without any Delay, to the Commissioner of the Navy at the Port where such Ship or Vessel shall be to which such Officers or Seamen shall then belong; and such Commissioner of the Navy shall forthwith cause Payment to be made to the said Officers and Seamen of the Wages or Pay which they were entitled to receive on the Payment of such Ship or Vessel, as aforesaid.

'VIII. And

'VIII. And whereas many Inconveniences and Frauds have arisen for want of a proper Regulation with 'respect to making out, and to the Payment of, the Tickets of inferior Officers and Seamen;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of November, if any inferior Officer or Seaman shall die in the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, the Captain or Commander of the Ship or Vessel in which such Officer or Seaman served at the Time of his Death, shall, as soon as may be after his Death, make out a Ticket for the Wages or Pay due to such Officer or Seaman at the Time of his Death; which Ticket the said Captain or Commander shall sign himself, and shall cause to be signed by the proper signing Officers of such Ship or Vessel, and shall send or transmit the said Ticket so made out and signed as aforesaid, by the first safe Opportunity, to the Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board, for the Use of the Executors or Administrators of such Officer or Seaman: And the said Commissioners of the Navy shall immediately cause the Day of the Receipt of such Ticket to be indorsed thereon; and such Ticket shall be forthwith examined, and shall, by three or more of the said Commissioners of the Navy, be assigned for Payment as soon as may be, or within one Month at farthest, to be computed from the Day of the making such Indorsement; and the said Ticket being so assigned for Payment, shall, without any Fee or Reward whatsoever, be delivered, upon Demand, to the Executors or Administrators of such Officer or Seaman, or to their respective Attorney or Attornies, to be duly authorized as is herein after directed; and the Money due thereon shall, without any Fee or Reward whatsoever, be paid to such Executors or Administrators, or to their respective Attorney or Attornies as aforesaid, as soon as such Ticket shall be brought to the Pay Office of the Navy.

Upon the Death of an inferior Officer or Seaman, the Captain is to make out a Ticket for his Pay, and transmit the same to the Navy Board; for the Use of the Executors. Day of Receipt to be indorsed thereon; and the Ticket to be examined, and assigned for Payment; and to be delivered to the Executors, and the Money paid.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of November, when and so often as any inferior Officer or Seaman, in the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall, by Wounds, Sickness or any other manifest Infirmity, be disabled and rendered unserviceable, in case such Officer or Seaman shall be on Board of any Ship or Vessel which shall then be in any Port of Great Britain, or on the Coast thereof, or which shall belong to any Squadron of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels which shall not be in any Port of Great Britain, or on the Coast thereof, the Captain or Commander of such Ship or Vessel, shall represent the same to the Commander in Chief of any Squadron of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels, who is hereby directed carefully to inquire into, and to examine the same; and if he shall be fully satisfied thereof, such Commander in Chief shall order such Captain or Commander to discharge such Officer or Seaman, and to make out and sign, in the usual Form, a Ticket for the Wages or Pay then due to such Officer or Seaman; or if such Ship or Vessel shall not be in any Port of Great Britain, or on the Coast thereof, and shall not belong to any Squadron of Ships or Vessels of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or shall be separated from the Commander in Chief of any Squadron to which such Ship or Vessel shall belong, then the Captain or Commander of such Ship or Vessel, being fully satisfied of such Disability, shall discharge such Officer or Seaman, and shall make out such Ticket without the Direction of any such Commander in Chief, and shall sign the same himself, and cause it to be signed by the proper signing Officers, as aforesaid: And whenever any such Officer or Seaman, so disabled and rendered unserviceable, shall be discharged, and such Ticket shall be so made out for such Officer or Seaman, and shall be signed in the Manner herein before directed, such Captain or Commander shall, at the same Time, grant and deliver to such Officer or Seaman, without Fee or Reward, a Certificate of his Discharge, containing an exact Copy of the said Ticket, and a Description of the Person for whom such Ticket was so made out; which Ticket shall not, upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever, be delivered to such Officer or Seaman, but such Captain or Commander shall send or transmit the same, by the first safe Opportunity, to the Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board, for the Use of such Officer or Seaman; and the said Commissioners shall immediately cause the Day when they shall receive such Ticket to be endorsed thereon, and such Ticket shall be forthwith examined, and shall, by three or more of the said Commissioners, be assigned for Payment, as soon as may be, or within one Month at farthest from the Day of the making of such Endorsement: And in case such Officer or Seaman shall present the said Certificate of his Discharge at the Navy Office, the said Commissioners of the Navy, or any of them, shall forthwith examine the said Certificate, and the Person presenting the same, and being satisfied that the said Certificate was made out for the said Person, and that he is rendered unserviceable, shall sign and testify the same on such Certificate; and the said Ticket, being so assigned for Payment, shall, without any Fee or Reward whatsoever, be immediately delivered to such Officer or Seaman to whom such Certificate of Discharge shall have been granted, as aforesaid, and to no other Person whatsoever, and the Money due thereon shall, without any Fee or Reward, be paid to such Officer or Seaman, and to no other Person whatsoever, as soon as such Ticket shall be brought to the Pay Office of the Navy; or if the said Ticket shall not have been transmitted to, and received by the said Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board, then the said Certificate shall be forthwith examined as aforesaid, and the Money appearing to be due on the said Ticket, by the Copy thereof contained in the said Certificate, shall be paid to the Person producing the same, as aforesaid, and to no other Person whatsoever, in like Manner as if the said Original Ticket had been transmitted and received: And in case any Officer or Seaman, so discharged, shall be desirous to receive his Wages or Pay at any Port of Great Britain where a Commissioner of the Navy shall be or reside, and shall present to such Commissioner the Certificate of his Discharge; the said Commissioner, upon examining such Certificate, and the Person so presenting the same, and being satisfied that the said Certificate was made out for the said Person, and that he is rendered unserviceable, shall sign and testify the same on such Certificate, and transmit such Certificate to the Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board, who are hereby strictly charged and required, within four Days after the Receipt of such Certificate, to cause the Ticket made out and transmitted to them for such Officer or Seaman, and assigned for Payment as aforesaid; or if such Ticket shall not have been transmitted to, and received by them, then the said Certificate, containing a Copy of the said Ticket, instead thereof, to be sent to the said Commissioner of the Navy at such Port, who shall cause the Money due thereon to be immediately paid at such Port, to such Officer or Seaman applying for the same, and intitled thereto,

Captain to report inferior Officer or Seaman fit to be discharged as unserviceable; and, upon Discharge granted, to make out a Ticket for his Pay, &c. and deliver to him a Certificate of his Discharge, but transmit the Ticket to the Navy Board; who are to endorse the Day of Receipt thereon, and examine the Ticket, and assign it for Payment; and if Presentment be made of the Certificate, they are to examine and sign the same, if satisfied therewith; and deliver the Ticket thereupon to the Owners, and the Money to be paid. If the Ticket be not transmitted or received, the Certificate alone when examined, &c. is sufficient. If the Certificate be presented to a Commissioner in any of the Ports in Great Britain, he is to examine and sign the same, if satisfied therewith, and transmit it to the Navy Board, &c. who are to order Payment to be made thereupon at such Port, and the Commissioner is to send such disabled Man, with an Order, to the nearest Hospital, thereto, without any Fee, Reward or Deduction whatsoever; and the Commissioner of the Navy at such Port where such Certificate shall be so presented, shall send such Officer or Seaman, so presenting the same, with an Order to the nearest Hospital, who shall receive such Officer or Seaman, and victual him from the Time he shall present such Certificate, until he shall be so paid the Wages or Pay due to him as aforesaid.

till Payment of his Wages.

If the Certificate should be lost or destroyed, or the Person not appear, and present the same, or the Money due on the Ticket be not paid before the General Payment of the Ship; the Ticket is to be cancelled, and the Wages to be paid to the Executors, &c.

X. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any such Certificate herein before directed to be granted and delivered to such inferior Officer or Seaman, so discharged, on account of being rendered unserviceable, as aforesaid, should happen to be lost or destroyed; or if any such Officer or Seaman should not appear in Person, and present the same to the Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board, or to the Commissioner of the Navy at any such Port in Great Britain, as aforesaid; in either of which Cases, the Wages or Pay due to such Officer or Seaman would not be payable by virtue of the said Ticket so made out for him; or if the Wages or Pay due upon such Ticket shall not be paid before the General Payment of the Ship's Company; then, and in every such Case, the said Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board, shall cause such Ticket to be cancelled, and all such Wages or Pay shall accrue and become payable to such Officer or Seaman, his Executors or Administrators, or to the respective Attorney or Attornies of such Officer or Seaman, his Executors or Administrators, demanding the same, and duly authorized as is herein after directed, when the Wages or Pay due upon such Ship or Vessel shall be paid, in the Manner prescribed by this Act, and as if such Ticket and Certificate had never been made out or granted; any thing herein contained, or any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of November, when and so often as any inferior Officer or Seaman belonging to any Ship or Vessel of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall, by Order of the Captain or Commander of such Ship or Vessel, be set Sick ashore, and be sent into any Hospital or Sick Quarters, for his Recovery, such Captain or Commander shall, at the same Time, make out a Sick Ticket for the Wages or Pay then due to such Officer or Seaman, and shall sign the same himself, and cause it to be signed by the proper signing Officers as aforesaid; which Sick Ticket being so made out and signed, shall be transmitted along with such Officer or Seaman to such Hospital or Sick Quarters: And if such Officer or Seaman not being cured in such Hospital or Sick Quarters, shall be regularly discharged from thence as unserviceable, then a Certificate of such Discharge, together with the said Sick Ticket annexed thereunto, shall be granted and delivered to him; and in case he shall present the same to the Commissioner of the Navy that shall be or reside at any Port in Great Britain, such Commissioner of the Navy, upon examining the Person presenting the same, and being duly satisfied that he is rendered unserviceable, shall sign and testify the same on such Certificate, and shall forthwith transmit such Certificate, together with the said Sick Ticket annexed thereunto, to the Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board, who are hereby strictly charged and required immediately to cause the Day when they shall receive the same to be indorsed thereon, and such Certificate and Sick Ticket annexed thereunto, to be examined by the Muster Books, if received, and a proper Ticket or Pay List, in the usual Form, to be made out within four Days after the Receipt of such Certificate and Sick Ticket, for the Payment of all Wages or Pay due to such Officer or Seaman; and shall send such Ticket or Pay List without any Delay to the said Commissioner of the Navy at such Port, who shall, without any Fee or Reward whatsoever, cause the Money due thereon to be immediately paid to such Officer or Seaman applying for the same, and intitled thereunto; who notwithstanding such Discharge, shall be kept and maintained in such Hospital or Sick Quarters, from the Time he shall present such Certificate and Sick Ticket annexed thereunto, until he shall be so paid the Wages or Pay due to him, as aforesaid.

Seamen not liable to be taken out of the Service, except for some criminal Matter, or a real Debt of the Value of 20 l. Oath to be made of the Debt before a Judge, and marked on the Back of the Process. Seaman to be otherwise discharged without Fee, and recover Costs.

XXVIII. And, to prevent for the future, as far as may be, any unjust or fraudulent Arrests upon Seamen actually belonging to any of the Ships of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, Be it also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of November, no Person whatsoever, who shall list and enter himself to serve as a Seaman on Board any of the Ships or Vessels of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall be liable to be taken out of the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by any Process or Execution whatsoever, either in Great Britain, Ireland, or any other Part of his Majesty's Dominions, other than for some criminal Matter; unless such Process or Execution be for a real Debt, or other just Cause of Action, and unless before the taking out of such Process or Execution, not being for a criminal Matter, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein, or some other Person or Persons on his or their Behalf, shall make Affidavit before one or more Judge or Judges of the Court of Record, or other Court, out of which such Process or Execution shall issue, or before some Person authorized to take Affidavits in such Courts, that to his or their Knowledge the Sum justly due and owing to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, from the Defendant or Defendants in the Action or Cause of Action on which such Process shall issue, or the Debt or Damage and Cost for which such Execution shall be issued out, amounts to the Value of twenty Pounds at the least; a Memorandum of which Oath shall be marked on the Back of such Process or Writ, for which Memorandum or Oath no Fee shall be taken; and if any Person be nevertheless arrested, contrary to the Intent of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for one or more Judge or Judges of such Court, upon Complaint made thereof by the Party himself, or by any one of his superior Officers, to examine into the same, by the Oath of the Parties, or otherwise, and, by Warrant under his or their Hands and Seals, to discharge such Seamen so arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, without paying any Fee or Fees, upon due Proof made before him or them, that such Seamen so arrested were actually belonging to one of the Ships or Vessels of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, and arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, and also to award award to the Party so complaining such Costs as such Judge or Judges shall think reasonable; for the Recovery whereof, he shall have the like Remedy that the Person who takes out the said Execution might have had for his Costs, or the Plaintiff in the said Action might have had for the Recovery of his Costs, in case Judgment had been given for him with Costs against the Defendant in the said Action.

XXIX. And, to the End that honest Creditors, who aim only at the Recovery of their just Debts due to them from such Seamen as are actually belonging to some of the Ships or Vessels of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, may not be hindered from suing for the same, but, on the contrary, may be assisted and forwarded in their Suits; and that, instead of proceeding by an Arrest, which may hurt the Service, and occasion a great Expence and Delay to themselves, they may be enabled to proceed in a more speedy and easy Method; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for any Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, upon Notice first given in Writing of the Cause of Action to such Seaman or Seamen belonging to the Royal Navy, or left at his or their last Place of Residence before his or their Entering into the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to file a Common Appearance in any Action to be brought for or upon account of any Debt whatsoever, so as to intitle such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs to proceed therein to Judgment and Outlawry, and to have an Execution thereupon, other than against the Body or Bodies of him or them so actually belonging to any Ship or Vessel of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, as aforesaid; this Act, or any thing herein, or any former Law or Statute, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Plaintiff may file a Common Appearance, and proceed to Judgement and Outlawry, and have Execution thereupon.

XXX. And, to prevent Extortion by Persons employed in the receiving of Seamens Wages, and other Monies, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons whatsoever who shall be employed in the receiving of any Wages, Pay, Prize Money, or any other Monies, due, or becoming due, for or upon account of the Service of any Officer, Seaman or other Person, in the Royal Navy, shall be intitled to take or retain more than six Pence in the Pound for or upon account of receiving thereof, and for paying the same to the Person or Persons by whom he or they shall be employed, or according to the Direction and Appointment of such Person or Persons, and for all his and their Trouble and Attendance in relation thereto: And if any Person or Persons so employed shall, directly or indirectly, demand, take or retain, or cause or procure, or knowingly and willingly permit or suffer, to be demanded, taken or retained, any Allowance, Gratuity, Reward, or Valuable Consideration, exceeding in the Whole the Sum of six Pence in the Pound, for the Monies so received as aforesaid, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be recovered, with Full Costs of Suit to any Person or Persons who will sue for the same in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in which no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed: And if any such Offender shall be a Clerk, Officer or Servant, in any Office belonging or relating to the Navy, he shall, upon Conviction, over and above the said Penalty of fifty Pounds, to be recovered as aforesaid, forfeit and lose his Place, and be for ever thereafter incapable of holding any Place of Profit in any such Office.

No more than 6 d. in the Pound to be deducted for receiving and paying Seamens Wages, or Prize Money; under Penalty of 50 l.

and if the Offender belong to any Office in the Navy, to lose his Place also.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by Authority aforesaid, That if any Clerk, Officer or Servant, in any Office belonging or relating to the Navy, shall, directly or indirectly, demand, take or retain, or cause or procure, or knowingly and willingly permit or suffer to be demanded, taken or retained, any Fee, Gratuity, Compensation, or valuable Consideration (not being authorized so to do by this Act) of or from any Person or Persons whatsoever, for or under Pretence of the doing or performing any Matter or Thing hereby directed or authorized to be done or performed, or which shall be in Execution hereof, every such Clerk, Officer or Servant, shall be subject to the same Forfeitures, Costs and Incapacities, as is herein before mentioned with respect to the taking more than six Pence in the Pound for the receiving of Seamens Wages.

Clerks, Officers, or Servants belonging to any Office in the Navy, taking other Fees than the Act allows, subject to the same Forfeitures.

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of November, so much of an Act made in the ninth and tenth Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the better preventing the Imbezzlement of his Majesty's Stores of War, and preventing Cheats, Frauds and Abuses, in paying Seamens Wages, as relates to the taking no more than the Sum of one Shilling for suing forth any Letters of Administration to the Wife or Children of any Seaman dying in the Pay of his Majesty's Navy, unless the Goods and Chattles of such Seaman do amount to the Sum of twenty Pounds: And also so much of an Act made in the fourth Year of the Reign of Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement and Increase of Seamen, and for the better and speedier Manning of her Majesty's Fleet, as relates to the Payment of the Wages due to Seamen turned over from one Ship to another: And so much of an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty of five hundred thousand Pounds, towards discharging Wages due to Seamen; and for the constant, regular and punctual Payment of Seamens Wages for the future; and for appropriating the Supplies granted in this present Session of Parliament; and for disposing of the Surplus of the Money granted for that Service for the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven) as contains any Provisions relative to his Majesty's Royal Navy, or the Commissioners thereof, or to the Captains, Commanders, Seamen, or other Persons serving therein, or to the Payment of the Wages due for such Service: And also an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for encouraging Seamen to enter into his Majesty's Service; shall be and are hereby repealed.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall direct an Abstract of the Provisions and Regulations herein contained, for the Benefit of Seamen belonging to the Ships and Vessels of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, together with the Articles of War, to be printed; and that a competent Number of the Copies thereof be delivered to the Captain or Commander of every such Ship or Vessel; and such Captain or Commander, as soon as the Ship or Vessel by him commanded shall be put into Sea Pay, shall cause one of the said printed Abstracts, together with the Articles of War, to be hung up and affixed to the most publick Place of such Ship or Vessel, and shall cause the same

Form of the Abstract.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Abstract herein before directed, shall be in the following Words; that is to say,

'ABSTRACT of an Act of Parliament made in the thirty-first Year of the Reign of King GEORGE 'the Second, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen employed in the Royal Navy; and for esta- 'blishing a regular Method for the punctual, frequent and certain Payment of their Wages; and for enabling 'them more easily and readily to remit the same for the Support of their Wives and Families; and for pre-' venting Frauds and Abuses attending such Payments.'

1. EVERY Volunteer entering his Name with a Commission Officer, appointed for entering Volunteers on Board any Ship in the Royal Navy, shall receive a Certificate thereof gratis, and be intitled to Wages from the Date of such Certificate, including the Day of the Date thereof, in case he appears on Board within fourteen Days, if the Place where he enters is not above one hundred Miles from the Ship; within twenty Days, if above one hundred Miles; or within thirty Days, if above two hundred Miles; and shall be allowed the usual Conduct Money, and also two Months Wages Advance, at the first fitting out of the Ship, and before the Ship proceeds to Sea.

2. Every supernumerary Man serving ten Days in any Ship, shall be borne for and intitled to his Wages upon the Books of such Ship, and to all other Benefits, as if he was Part of the Complement of such Ship; but Men lent from one Ship into another, shall continue to be borne for and intitled to their Wages upon the Books of the Ship from which they were lent, until they shall be regularly discharged from thence, and in no other.

3. Every inferior Officer or Seaman, who shall be turned over from one Ship to another (in case the Ship into which he is turned over, is then or shall come into a Port of Great Britain where there is a Commissioner of the Navy) shall be paid, by proper Pay Lists, all the Wages due to him in the Ship from which he was so turned over, before the Ship into which he shall be turned over proceeds to Sea, unless it shall be otherwise directed by Special Order from the Admiralty, in Cases of the greatest Exigency only; and if the Ship, in pursuance of such Order, proceeds to Sea before such Payment can possibly be made, the Wages shall be paid as soon as such Ship shall come again into any Port of Great Britain where there is a Commissioner of the Navy.

4. Every Officer or Seaman who shall be turned over from one Ship to another, shall not serve or be rated in a worse Quality, or lower Degree, than he served in or was rated for in the former Ship; and shall have an Advance of two Months Wages before the Ship into which he is turned over proceeds to Sea, in case he shall not have received such Advance before.

5. Such Sums of Money shall in the first Place be appropriated, and shall, from time to time, be issued and applied out of the Supplies granted, or to be granted, for any Naval Services, as shall be sufficient for the regular Payment of all Tickets made out pursuant to the Act, and for the regular Discharge of all Wages due, or to grow due, in Manner following; that is to say, As often as any Ship which shall have been in Sea Pay twelve Months, or more, shall be or arrive in any Port of Great Britain, or on the Coast thereof, the Captain or Commander shall immediately cause five complete Pay Books to be made out, for all the Time such Ship shall have been in Pay, except the last six Months; and shall forthwith transmit, by the first safe Opportunity, such Books, together with three Alphabets, and a Slop Book, to the Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board: And as soon as such Ship shall be or arrive in any Port of Great Britain where there is a Commissioner of the Navy, the said Commissioners of the Navy shall solicit the necessary Sums of Money, and shall cause immediate Payment to be made of the Wages due, deducting the Advance Money, and all Defalcations; leaving always six Months Wages unpaid, and no more: And all the Wages due upon any Ship shall be paid as soon as may be, or within two Months at furthest, after the Arrival of such Ship in Port to be laid up.

6. The Month shall consist of twenty-eight Days.

7. Upon Application to the Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board, by any inferior Officer or Seaman who shall then be in the Service, and was absent at the Payment of the Ship to which he did belong, or from the Captain or Commander of any Ship in which such Officer or Seaman shall then serve, in case such Ship shall be in any Port of Great Britain where there is a Commissioner of the Navy, the Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board, shall immediately send their Pay Books, or Pay Lists made out from them, to such Commissioner, who shall forthwith cause the Wages to be paid to such Officer or Seaman.

or

8. The Captain, or Commander, shall make out a Ticket upon the Death of every inferior Officer and Seaman, and shall transmit the same, by the first safe Opportunity, to the Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board, who are to assign the same for Payment within one Month after the Receipt thereof; and the same shall be delivered, and Payment thereon made, without Fee or Reward, to the Executors or Administrators of such Officer or Seaman, or to the Attorney of such Executors or Administrators.

9. The Captain, or Commander, shall make out a Ticket for every inferior Officer or Seaman who shall be discharged as unserviceable, pursuant to the Directions of the Act, and shall send such Ticket, by the first safe Opportunity, to the Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board. The Captain, or Commander, shall not deliver such Ticket to such Officer or Seaman, but shall give him a Certificate of such Discharge, containing an exact Copy of the Ticket, and a Description of his Person. The said Commissioners of the Navy shall immediately cause the Day when such Ticket was received to be indorsed thereon, and shall assign the same for Payment within one Month at farthest from the Day of making such Indorsement. And if any such Officer or Seaman shall present such Certificate at the Navy Office, the said Commissioners of the Navy are forthwith to examine such Certificate, and the Person presenting the same; and, being satisfied that the Certificate was made out for such Person, and that he is rendered unserviceable, they shall testify the same on such Certificate. The said Ticket being so assigned, shall be immediately delivered, and Payment made at the Pay Office of the Navy, to such Officer or Seaman, without Fee or Reward, and to no other Person whatsoever. If the Ticket shall not have been transmitted to, and received by, the Commissioners of the Navy, the Money appearing to be due by the Copy of the Ticket in the Certificate, shall be paid in like Manner as if the Ticket had been received. Such Officer or Seaman being desirous to receive his Wages at any Port in Great Britain where a Commissioner of the Navy resides, may produce his Certificate to such Commissioner of the Navy, who, being satisfied that such Certificate was made out for such Person, and that he is rendered unserviceable, shall sign and transmit the same to the Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board; who, within four Days after the Receipt of such Certificate, are to send the Ticket for such Officer or Seaman, or if such Ticket shall not have been transmitted to and received by them, then the said Certificate, containing a Copy of the said Ticket instead thereof, to the Commissioner at such Port; who shall cause immediate Payment thereon to be made, without Fee or Reward: And such Commissioner shall send such Officer or Seaman to the nearest Hospital, where he is to be received and victualled, from the Time of presenting such Certificate until Payment is made. If any such Certificate shall be lost or destroyed, or such Officer or Seaman shall not present the same in Person, or the Money due on any such Ticket shall not be paid before the general Payment of the Ship's Company, the Ticket shall be cancelled, and the Wages be payable as if such Ticket and Certificate had not been made out.

10. When any inferior Officer or Seaman shall, by Order of the Captain or Commander, be set sick ashore, and be sent into any Hospital, or Sick Quarters, such Captain or Commander shall make out a Sick Ticket, for the Wages due to such Officer or Seaman, and transmit the same with such Officer or Seaman to the Hospital, or Sick Quarters; and if such Officer or Seaman shall be regularly discharged from thence as unserviceable, a Certificate of his Discharge, with the Sick Ticket annexed thereto, shall be delivered to him: And if he shall present the same to a Commissioner at any Port in Great Britain, such Commissioner being satisfied that such Officer or Seaman is unserviceable, shall sign the same on the Certificate, and forthwith transmit such Certificate, and Sick Ticket, to the Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board, who, within four Days after the Receipt thereof, are required to cause a proper Ticket, or Pay List, to be made out for the Wages due to such Officer or Seaman, and to send such Ticket, or Pay List, without Delay, to the Commissioner at such Port, who shall cause immediate Payment of the Wages to be made, without Fee or Reward, to such Officer or Seaman; who, notwithstanding such Discharge, shall be maintained in such Hospital, or Sick Quarters, from the Time he shall present the Certificate, and Sick Ticket, until the Payment shall be made.

11. The Payment of Tickets, Certificates, or Pay Lists, shall not be delayed, though the Muster or Pay Books be not regularly sent to, and received by, the Commissioners of the Navy; but if any Error shall be made in any Ticket, Certificate or Pay List, the Loss shall be made good out of the Wages of the Captain, or Commander, by whom such Ticket, Certificate, or Pay List, was made out.

12. As often as any Ship which shall not be in a Port of Great Britain, or on the Coast thereof, shall have twelve Months Wages due, the Captain, or Commander, shall cause the Names of all the inferior Officers and Seamen to be called over, and each to answer to his Name, and shall do the same at the End of every six Months, when twelve Months, or more Wages, shall be due: And if any such Officer or Seaman shall then declare, or deliver in Writing, the Name and Place of Abode of his Wife, Father or Mother, and desire that the Whole, or any Part of his Wages then due, except the Wages due for the last six Months, should be paid to such Wife, Father or Mother, by the Receiver General of the Land Tax for any County, Riding or City, or Collector of the Customs for any Port, or Collector of the Excise for any Collection in Great Britain, or the Clerk of the Cheque at any Dock Yard; the Captain, or Commander, is strictly required to cause four Lists to be made out of the Persons so desiring to make such Remittances, and shall transmit such Lists, by the first safe Opportunity, without Delay, to the Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board, who, on Receipt thereof, shall immediately make out two Bills pursuant to the Directions of the Act, for the Payment of the Wages so allotted by each Person; one of which Bills shall be sent to the Persons respectively specified in such Lists, and the other to such Receiver, Collector, or Clerk of the Cheque: And if the Person to whom any such Bill is sent, shall, within six Months from the Date thereof, produce and deliver the same to such Receiver, Collector, or Clerk of the Cheque, together with a Certificate that such Person is the Wife, Father or Mother of such Officer or Seaman respectively, under the Hands of the Minister and Churchwardens, or, in Scotland, of the Minister and two Elders, of the Parish where such Person was married, or resides; such Receiver, Collector, or Clerk of the Cheque, upon being satisfied of the Truth of such Certificate, is immediately, without Fee or Reward, to pay the Sum mentioned in such Bill, taking a Receipt. Such Bill, together with the Duplicate thereof, being produced at the Navy Office, shall be immediately assigned for Payment by the Commissioners of the Navy, and repaid by the Treasurer of the Navy, to such Receiver, Collector, or Clerk of the Cheque, or their Order respectively; but if Payment of the said Bill be not demanded of such Receiver, Collector, or Clerk of the Cheque, and the Duplicate of the said Bill, together with a proper Certificate, be not produced and delivered to them respectively, within six Months from the Date thereof, the Bill is to be returned and cancelled, and the Sum contained therein is to become payable to such inferior Officer or Seaman when the Ship shall be paid.

13. In like Manner, when Wages shall be paid at the Pay Office, or at any of the Out Ports, if any inferior Officer or Seaman shall be desirous to remit the Whole or Part of his Wages to his Wife, Children, Parents, or any other Person, and to have a Bill for the same drawn upon any such Receiver, Collector or Clerk of the Cheque, two Bills are to be made out, one of which is to be delivered to such Officer or Seaman, and the other to be sent to such Receiver, Collector, or Clerk of the Cheque, who is to pay immediately the Sum therein mentioned, without any Fee or Reward, taking a Receipt. Such Bill, together with the Duplicate thereof, being produced at the Navy Office, shall be immediately assigned for Payment by the Commissioners of the Navy, and be repaid, by the Treasurer of the Navy, to such Receiver, Collector, or Clerk of the Cheque, or their Order respectively: But if Payment of the said Bill be not demanded of such Receiver, Collector, or Clerk of the Cheque, and the Duplicate of the said Bill shall not be produced and delivered to them respectively within six Calendar Months from the Date thereof, the Bill is to be returned and cancelled, and the Sum contained therein is to be immediately paid to such Officer or Seaman, or other Person duly authorized to receive the same.

14. If any such Receiver, Collector, or Clerk of the Cheque, shall not have in his Hands Money to answer any Bill tendered by such Wife, Father or Mother, aforesaid, and shall refuse or delay the immediate Payment thereof, he is immediately to indorse on such Bill the Cause of his Refusal or Delay, and appoint for Payment some Day within two Months after such Tender; and if, upon Complaint to the Commissioners respectively appointed to manage the Land Tax, Customs or Excise, or to the Commissioners of the Navy, respectively, it shall appear, that any such Receiver, Collector, or Clerk of the Cheque, hath unnecessarily and wilfully refused or delayed Payment, or that he, or any Person employed by or under him, hath taken any Fee, Reward, Gratuity, Discount or Deduction, on account of Payment of any such Bill, such Commissioners may fine such Offender in any Sum not exceeding fifty Pounds.

15. The Wages, Pay and Allowances, earned by any indentured Apprentice, shall be paid to his Master, as hath been usual, unless such Apprentice was above eighteen Years of Age when his Indentures were executed, or shall be rated as a Servant to any Officer to whom such Apprenticeship is not known; in which Case, such Officer shall be intitled to the Pay and Wages of such Servant, according to the usual Practice of the Navy, until such Officer shall be informed of such Apprenticeship.

16. Captains or Commanders of Ships are to transmit from time to time to the Commissioners of the Navy, at their Board, complete Pay Books, Lists and Tickets, and also once in every two Months complete Muster Books, under the Penalty of forfeiting all their Wages to the Chest at Chatham, and of being liable to such further Punishment as a Court-martial shall inflict; except in Cases of Necessity, to be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners of the Admiralty.

23. Whoever willingly and knowingly shall personate, or falsely assume, the Name or Character of, or procure any other to personate or falsely to assume, the Name or Character of any Officer, Seaman or other Person, intitled to Wages, Pay, Allowances or Prize Money, for Service done on Board of any Ship of the Royal Navy, or the Executor, Administrator, Wife, Relation or Creditor of any such Officer, Seaman or other Person, in order to receive any Wages, Pay, Allowances or Prize Money, or shall forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, any Letter of Attorney, or other Power or Authority whatsoever, in order to receive any Wages, Pay, Allowances or Prize Money, or shall willingly and knowingly take a false Oath, or procure a false Oath to be taken, to obtain the Probate of a Will, or Letters of Administration, in order to receive any Wages, Pay, Allowances or Prize Money, shall be guilty of Felony, and suffer Death.

29. Receivers of Seamens Wages taking more than six Pence in the Pound, shall, for every Offence, forfeit fifty Pounds; and if any such Offender be a Clerk, Officer or Servant, in an Office belonging to the Navy, he shall also lose his Place, and be incapable of holding any Place of Profit in any such Office.

Moles in Lands adjoining to Banks to be destroyed by the Owners of the said Lands; or the Charges thereof to be levied on them.

misses respectively wherein such Moles shall be caught, over and above the said other Rates and Taxes charged or to be charged upon the same by virtue of this Act, and in the same Manner as the said Rates and Taxes are herein before directed to be levied, together with the Charges of making and keeping and selling such Distress, rendering the Overplus (if any be) to such Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers respectively, after all Charges paid.

No Trees, Holts or Buildings, to be suffered to stand near any Mill or Engine.

XXVIII. And, in order that the Mills or Engines to be erected or employed by virtue of this Act, may the better answer the Purposes for which they are intended; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Trees or Holts shall be planted, or Buildings erected, nearer to any Mill or Engine erected or employed for the Purposes of this Act, than one hundred and fifty Yards; and if any Trees or Holts shall be planted, or Building hereafter erected, within the Distance aforesaid, then it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, to cause such Trees or Holts to be taken up and carried away, and such Building to be pulled down and removed; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, to cause any Trees or Holts which shall be growing within the Distance of one hundred and fifty Yards from any Mill to be erected or employed for the Purposes of this Act at the Time such Mill or Engine shall be first erected or used, to be cut down; making such Satisfaction to the Owner of such Trees or Holts as shall be agreed upon between such Owner and the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, or as shall, in case of any Difference, be ascertained by the Justices of the Peace at any Quarter-Session which shall be held for the said County of Cambridge, within six Months after the cutting down such Trees or Holts.

Commissioners impowered to erect Staunches for keeping up a Head of Water at proper Places, in the Drains leading from the Skirt Lands.

XXIX. And whereas Part of the said Fen Lands, lying near the Skirts of the High Lands, are higher in their Situation than the rest, and it is apprehended that such Lands, if the Sewers should lie in common, may be made too dry, by such Time as the lowest Lands are well drained: Therefore, for the avoiding this Inconvenience, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, to erect Staunches or Overfalls, at proper Places, in the Drains or Dykes leading from such Lands, as they the said Commissioners shall in their Discretion judge necessary for the keeping up a sufficient Head of Water for the Benefit of such Lands.

Mills may be erected for draining arable Lands which produce Winter Crops.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Owners or Occupiers of such Part of the said Fen Lands, lying within the Boundaries aforesaid, as are arable, and produce Winter Crops, or have actually been dug up into Turf, to erect Horse Mills, or other Small Engines, thereupon, in order to drain such Lands, so as to preserve the said Crops, and to render the Lands so dug up useful, and for no other Purpose whatsoever.

Mills to be erected, &c. by the Commissioners for draining the Tract of Land principally belonging to Lord Townshend, &c.

'XXXI. And whereas a considerable Tract of the said Fen Lands and Low Grounds, whereof the Right 'Honourable Charles Lord Viscount Townshend is Owner of far the greatest Part, is separated from the rest 'by an imbanked Drain or Rivulet, called Soham Drain, otherwise Barroway Load; and it is apprehended 'that the said Tract may be more commodiously drained, by discharging the Waters immediately into the 'River Ouze;' Be it therefore enacted, That the Commissioners for putting this Act in Execution shall erect, or cause to be erected, one proper Mill or Engine, or, if the said Lord Viscount Townshend, his Heirs or Assigns, Owners as aforesaid, shall think two necessary, shall erect, or cause to be erected, two proper Mills or Engines for the Purpose aforesaid, upon such Part of the said Tract above Barroway Bridge as the said Lord Viscount Townshend, his Heirs or Assigns, Owners as aforesaid, shall direct and appoint; and shall support and maintain the same; and shall likewise make and cleanse, or cause to be made and cleansed, such proper Drain or Drains, Cuts and Tunnels, in and through the said Tract, and the Banks thereof, as shall be necessary for draining the said Tract, and shall cause the said Mill or Mills, Engine or Engines, when erected, to be worked, as the said Lord Viscount Townshend, his Heirs or Assigns, being principal Owners of the Lands within the said Tract, shall direct; and in Default of such Direction, then as the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, such major Part not being less than seven, assembled as aforesaid, shall direct.

General Reservation of Rights.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it hereby enacted, That all such Right or Rights as any Lord or Lords of any Manor or Manors, Liberties, Hundred, or Half Hundred, have heretofore had within his or their respective Manor or Manors, Liberties, Hundred, or Half Hundred, within or without the said Boundaries, to Waifs, Estrays, Felons Goods, Privileges of Arrests, Escheats, and all Royalties, not prejudicial to the Draining, be hereby saved to them, their Heirs, Successors and Assigns, severally and respectively; any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Rights of the Conservators of the Great Level reserved.

XXXIII. Saving also, and always reserving to the said Governor, Bailiffs and Commonalty, of the Company of Conservators of the Great Level of the Fens, and their Successors, and to all and every other Person or Persons, his, her and their Heirs, Executors and Administrators, all such lawful Rights, Powers, Jurisdictions and Authorities, now vested in, and enjoyed by them, as are not hereby taken away, altered or repealed: And also saving and reserving to the said Lord Viscount Townshend, his Heirs and Assigns, being the Owner or Owners of Soham Meer, the Right of draining and running the Waters from the said Meer, in such Manner as the same have been accustomed, and of Right ought to drain and run.

Recital of Clauses in Act 15 Car. 2.

'XXXIV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the fifteenth Year of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for settling the Draining the Great Level of the Fens, called Bedford Level, it was, 'amongst other Things, enacted, That the Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators of the said Great Level 'should have Power to lay Taxes upon the ninety-five thousand Acres of Land allotted as a Recompence 'for the Draining of the said Great Level, for the Support, Maintenance and Preservation of the said Great 'Level, and to levy the same, with Penalties for Non-payment; and that the said Governor, Bailiffs and 'Conservators should have Power to sell so much of such Parts and Proportions of the said ninety-five thou-'sand Acres, upon which any Taxes should be in Arrear, or Penalties, in such Proportions as the said Go-'vernors, Bailiffs and Conservators, should judge to be sufficient to raise such Taxes and Penalties: And 'whereas several Parcels of the said ninety-five thousand Acres of Land, lying within the Bounds herein

'before described, were at different Times put up to Sale in pursuance of, and according to the Directions 'of the before-recited Act of the fifteenth of King CHARLES the Second, and of one other Act passed in & 20 Car. 2.
'the twentieth Year of the said King, intituled, An Act for Taxing and Assessing the Lands of the Adventurers 'in the Great Level of the Fens, in order to raise the Taxes and Penalties in Arrear for and in respect of the 'said Lands; but the same not being thought worth the Taxes and Penalties due thereon, such Lands could 'not be sold so as to raise such Penalties and Taxes; and the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators, ha-'ving directed their Officers, from time to time, to bid for such Lands as could not be sold for the Amount 'of the Taxes and Penalties respectively due thereon, they the said Officers became the Purchasers of such 'Lands, and have either conveyed the same to the said Governor, Bailiffs and Commonalty, or declared 'such Purchases to have been made in Trust for the said Corporation; and the Lands so purchased have re-'mained vested in the said Corporation, and are called Invested Lands, and have been annually rated and as-'sessed to the Taxes laid upon the said ninety-five thousand Acres, according to the respective Proportions 'in pursuance of the said Acts of the fifteenth and twentieth Years of the Reign of King CHARLES the 'Second; but such Taxes not having been raised or paid, the said Corporation have, from time to time, let 'such invested Lands, or such Parts of them as they could find Tenants for, at such Rents as could be pro-'cured for the same; but the Profits arising from the Lands so let, have been very small and inconsiderable, 'and much less than the Taxes with which such Lands have been assessed: And whereas it will be for the 'Benefit of the said Corporation, that the said invested Lands should be sold for the best Price that can be 'gotten for the same, discharged of all Arrears of Taxes assessed or to be assessed thereon, before the said 'Lands shall be sold by virtue of the said Acts of the fifteenth and twentieth Years of King CHARLES the 'Second, but subject nevertheless in like Manner as the rest of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, to the 'Taxes to be assessed by virtue of the said Acts, after the said Lands shall be so sold; and that in the mean 'Time, and until such Lands can be sold, the said Corporation should be enabled to pay the Rates and 'Taxes to be assessed by virtue of this Act, upon the said Lands, for draining the same;' Be it therefore The Corporation's Receiver to pay to the Commissioners Collector the Rates charged on the Invested Lands, until the same be sold.
further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Receiver for the time being of the said Corporation, shall, out of the Taxes and Revenues of the South and Middle Levels (Part of the said Great Level) pay upon Demand, to the Collector or Collectors to be appointed by the said Commissioners, all such Rates and Taxes as are or shall be charged by virtue of this Act, upon the said invested Lands, or any Part thereof, until the same shall be sold as herein after is directed; and such Receiver shall be, and he is hereby absolutely discharged and indemnified, of and for the Sums so by him paid to the said Collector or Collectors, as if such Sums had been paid to and by the Order and Direction of the said Corporation.

XXXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators, Conservators to appoint annually a Commissioner for every 200 Acres of the Invested Lands taxed by this Act.
or any five or more of them, whereof the said Governor or Bailiffs, or any of them, to be two, shall have full Power and Authority to appoint annually at their April Meeting, one Commissioner for every two hundred Acres of the said invested Lands, for which the Taxes to be imposed by virtue of this Act, shall be paid as aforesaid, for so long Time as two hundred Acres of the said Lands shall remain invested.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators, or any seven or more of them, whereof the said Governor or Bailiffs, or any of them, to be two, to cause the said invested Lands to be publickly sold by Auction, either all together, or in Lots as they now lie, to the best Bidder or Bidders, at the Shire House in Ely, at any April Meeting of the said Corporation; of which Sale or Sales publick Notice shall be given in the London Gazette, and also in the Cambridge and Ipswich Journals, if such News Papers shall then continue to be published, and shall also be affixed in Writing under the Seal of the said Corporation, at or upon the said Shire House, one Month at the least before the Time of such Sale; and that after any of the said Lands shall be so sold, the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators, or any seven or more of them as aforesaid, shall grant or convey under the Seal of the said Corporation, the Lands so sold to the respective Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, freed and discharged of and from all Rates and Taxes, which at any Time before such Sale shall have been rated or charged upon the said Lands by virtue of the said Acts of the fifteenth and twentieth Years of King CHARLES the Second, or of any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, relating to the said Great Level; and every such Grant or Conveyance shall be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Lands had been sold for Non-payment of Taxes, pursuant to the said Acts of the fifteenth and twentieth Years of King CHARLES the Second. Sale may be made of the Invested Lands; giving one Month's publick Notice thereof. The same to be discharged of all former Taxes;

XXXVII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to impower the said Corporation to discharge the said invested Lands, or any Part thereof, from any Rates or Taxes which the same shall, after Sale thereof, as aforesaid, be liable to be rated or assessed with, by virtue of the said Acts of the fifteenth and twentieth Years of King CHARLES the Second, or by virtue of any other Act or Acts of Parliament whatsoever, relating to the said Great Level, but that the said invested Lands after they shall be so sold, shall be liable to be rated and assessed in the same Manner as they were before the making of this Act; any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding. But not from Taxes liable to be assessed thereon after such Sale.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all such Bordering of Skirt Lands as are herein after particularly mentioned, shall be for ever exempted from all Taxes assessed or to be assessed, rated or charged, by virtue of this Act; that is to say, Particular Lands exempted from Taxes.

II. And, to the Intent that from and after the said twenty-ninth Day of September, a plain and constant Rule and Method may be duly observed and kept in the making and assizing of the several Sorts of Bread which shall be made for Sale in any Place or Places where an Assize of Bread shall at any Time be thought proper to be set in pursuance of this Act, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-ninth Day of September, it shall be lawful for the Court, or Person or Persons herein after authorized by this Act to set the Assize of Bread, to set, ascertain and appoint, in any Place or Places within their respective Jurisdictions, the Assize and Weight of all Sorts of Bread, which shall, in any such Place or Places, be made for Sale, or exposed to Sale, and the Price to be paid for the same respectively, when, and as often, from time to time, as any such Court, or Person or Persons as aforesaid, shall think proper; and that in every Assize of Bread which shall be set in pursuance of this Act, Respect shall, from time to time, be had by the Court, Person or Persons as aforesaid, who shall set the same, to the Price which the Grain, Meal or Flour, whereof such Bread shall be made, shall bear in the publick Market or Markets, in or near the Place or Places for which any such Assize shall be so at any Time set; and making, from time to time, reasonable Allowance to the Makers of Bread for Sale, where any such Assize shall be so set, for their Charges, Labour, Pains, Livelihood and Profit, as such Court, or Person or Persons as aforesaid respectively, who shall at any Time think fit to set any such Assize, shall, from time to time, deem proper.

Assize to be regulated by the Price the Grain, Meal or Flour bears in the Market, and the Profit to be allowed to the Baker.

Where an Assize shall be set, no Sort of Bread (Wheaten and Houshold excepted) other than what is thereby allowed, is to be made for Sale;

III. under Penalty of forfeiting not exceeding 40s. nor less than 20s.

Assize and Price of Bread to be set according to the two following Tables, marked N° I. and N° II.

IV. And be it also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-ninth Day of September, in every Place and Places for which an Assize of Bread shall at any Time be thought proper to be set by virtue of this Act, the Assize and Weight of the several Sorts of Bread which shall be there made for Sale, or sold, or exposed to or for Sale, and the Price to be paid for the same respectively, shall be set and ascertained according to the Tables hereafter following, marked N° I. and II.

N° I. A TABLE

N° I.

A TABLE of the Assize and Price of Bread made of Wheat,

IN TWO PARTS.

Part the First, or, the Assize Table,

Contains, in Column N° I. the Price of the Bushel of Wheat Winchester Measure, from 2 s. 9 d. to 14 s. 6 d. the Bushel, the Allowance of the Magistrates or Justices to the Baker, for Baking, being included; and in Column N° II. are the Weights of the several Loaves: So that (for Example) if the Price of Wheat in the Market is 5 s. the Bushel, and the Magistrates allow 1 s. 6 d. the Bushel to the Baker for Baking, find 6 s. 6 d. in Column N° I. and even therewith, under N° II. will be found the Weights of the several Loaves; but if the Price in the Market is 3 s. and the Allowance 1 s. then the Weight of the said Loaves will be found even with 4 s.

Note, That the Wheaten Loaves are Three-fourths of the Weight of the Household Loaves; and if the Magistrates or Justices shall think fit to allow of any White Loaves of the Price of One Penny or Two Pence, they are to weigh at all Times Three-fourths of the Weight of the Wheaten Loaves of the same Price.

Part the Second, or, the Price Table,

Contains, in Column N° II. the Price of the Bushel of Wheat Winchester Measure, from 2 s. 9 d. to 14 s. 6 d. the Bushel, the Allowance of the Magistrates or Justices to the Baker, for Baking, being included; and in Column N° I. are the Prices of the Peck, Half Peck and Quartern, Wheaten and Household Loaves: So that (for Example) if the Price of Wheat in the Market is 5 s. the Bushel, and the Magistrates allow 1 s. 6 d. to the Baker for Baking, find 6 s. 6 d. in N° II. and even therewith, under N° I. will be found the Prices of the several Loaves; but if the Price in the Market is 3 s. the Bushel, and the Allowance 1 s. then the Prices of the said Loaves will be found even with 4 s.

Note, That the Prices of the Household Loaves are always Three-fourths of the Prices of the Wheaten Loaves; and where it shall be thought proper to allow of Half Quartern Loaves, the Prices of such Loaves (if sold singly) are to be Half a Farthing higher than is allowed by this Table, when it shall so happen that the Farthing is split.

And Magistrates and Justices, within their respective Jurisdictions, being to set the Assize and fix the Price of the several Loaves of Bread, having Respect to the Price which the Grain, Meal or Flour, of which the same are made, shall bear in the Market; but no Provision being made how they should know what Price the respective Sorts of Meal and Flour should be esteemed to bear, in Proportion to the Price of Wheat, they are therefore to take Notice, That the Peck Loaf of each Sort of Bread is to weigh, when well baken, 17 lb. 6 Ounces Averdupois, and the rest in Proportion; and that every Sack of Meal or Flour is to weigh 2 Cwt. 2 qrs. net; and that from every Sack of Meal or Flour there ought to be produced, on the Average, 20 such Peck Loaves of Bread; and, by observing the said Rule, Magistrates and Justices may at all Times know if the Baker hath more or less than the Allowance they intend to give him.

A TABLE of the Assize and Price of Bread made of the several Grains hereunder mentioned.

This Table is divided into seven Columns: Columns the 1st and 7th contain the Prices of the Bushel of Grain, the Allowance for Baking included; which Prices are adapted so as to serve either for the Winchester Bushel of Rye, the Winchester Bushel of Barley, the Winchester Bushel of Oats, the Winchester Bushel of Beans, the Winchester Bushel of Maslin alias Miscellany, consisting of Two-thirds Wheat and One-third Rye; the Price of either of which Bushels in the Market being known, the Magistrates are to add the intended Allowance thereto; the Amount of which being found either in Column N° I. or VII. the Weights which the several Penny, Twopenny, Sixpenny, and Twelvepenny Loaves ought to be of, will be found under Columns N° II. III. IV. and V. and the Price of the respective Peck Loaves (which are to weigh 17 lb. 6 z. each) under N° VI.

Example, When the Price of the Bushel of Barley in the Market, with the Allowance to the Baker, is 4 s. look for that Sum in Column the 1st or 7th, and under their respective Titles in the same Line will be found the Weights which the several Assize Barley Loaves should be of, and the Price of the Peck Barley Loaf, and so of each of the other Sorts.

Note, Where Bread is allowed at any Time to be made for Sale of Pease only, the Assize and Price thereof are to be set and fixed from the Bean Columns; and where Bread is ordered to be made for Sale of a coarse Sort of Maslin or Miscellany Grain, consisting of One-third Rye, One-third Barley, and One-third either Pease or Beans, the Assize and Price thereof are to be set and fixed from the Barley Columns.

Note also, That this Table is framed for Bread to be made of the whole Produce of the said several Grains, except the Bran or Hull thereof only.
